

COACHING MASTERCLASSES

Series II - From Competency to Mastery

3 x 3 hour online workshops

The Program

There are many voices out there encouraging us to be more competent, fewer guiding us to becoming more masterful. Instead mastery is often defined in terms of competence. In this program we will define a road to mastery in terms of transcendence, philosophy, purpose & practice.

Transcendence

To what extent are you able to adopt an elevated perspective on the work that you do, a perspective that enables you to be more choiceful about becoming the best coach you can be?

Philosophy

Upon what foundations is your approach to coaching constructed? To what extent do you purposefully solidify and deepen those foundations?

Purpose

Why do you do the work and how do you decide if you've done a good job? Compare and contrast your thinking to more than 100 other coaches.

Practice

We share 10 debates with you as to what constitutes good practice. Where do you stand on each of those 10 debates? Where are you similar and different to other coaches?

All programs designed and delivered by Dr Paul Lawrence, author of Leading Change, The Tao of Dialogue, Coaching in Three Dimensions, Coaching Systemically, The Wise Leader & The Wise Team Coach.
